HOW MUCH WILL IT COST

to take in the WORLD'S FAIR?

Thousands Have Asked This Question, And We Can Truthfully Say-

Less Than Most People Think

Eighty-five exhibition buildings and features -eighty-two miles of interesting things to see —world famous orchestras, bands and choirs for all of which there is no charge at all. After you have paid your general admission (50c-25c for children) all these buildings, exhibits and features are yours to enjoy entirely free.

In the Tunisian Village you find yourself transported to the romantic environment of North Africa and the Orient. Swarthy bedouins, in their gaily striped khar balcony of a stately minaret floats the call of the Mullah to the hour of prayer for the "Faithful."

And so we travel from one fascinating village to another-Ireland, with its famous Hall of Tara, jauntalmost a score of these alluring bits of far-away lands, set down in Chicago.

Educational and instructive exhibits, too-miles of them—and so intensely interesting they rival the purely amusement features.

But the World's Fair, great and unique as it is, only heads off in the fun and entertainment Chicago offers you. Glance over this circular for an outline of what to do, where to go and how to get there.
