

PICTORIAL VIEWS
A CENTURY OF PROGRESS
1933 CHICAGO WORLD'S FAIR 1933

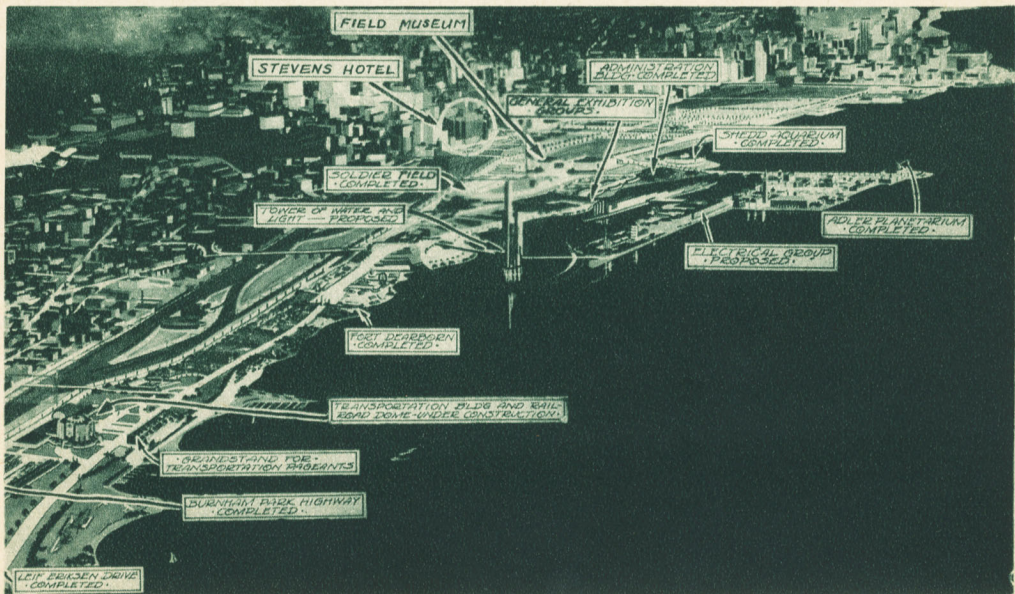

Chicago Union Station
—The Terminal for the Pennsylvania Railroad

Postage
1½ Cent
Stamp

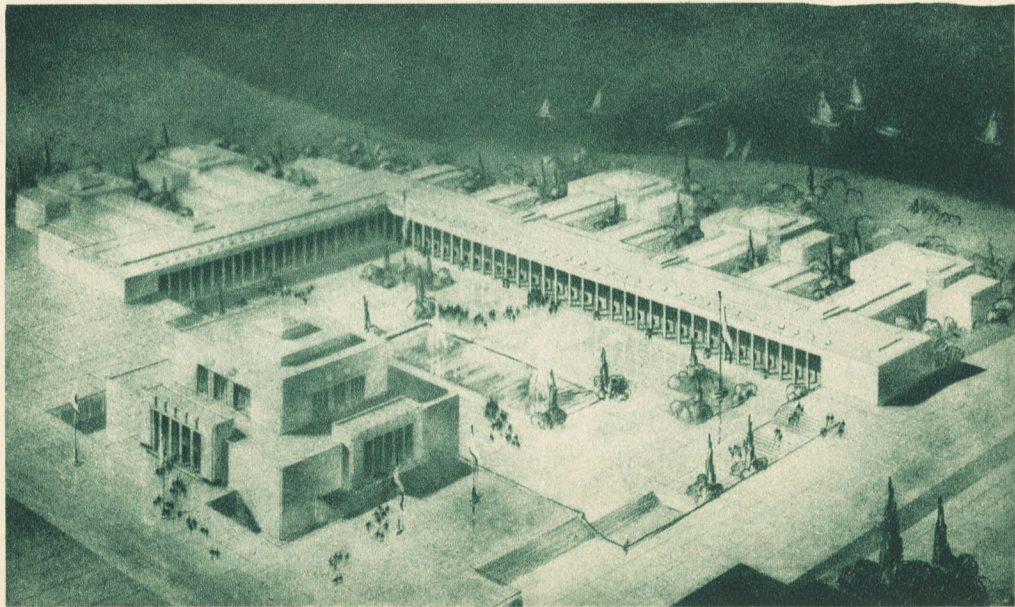

The Stevens—"The Gateway to the Century of Progress." 3000 Rooms with Baths, $3.00 up.

Aerial View of the Century of Progress—Chicago World's Fair—1933.

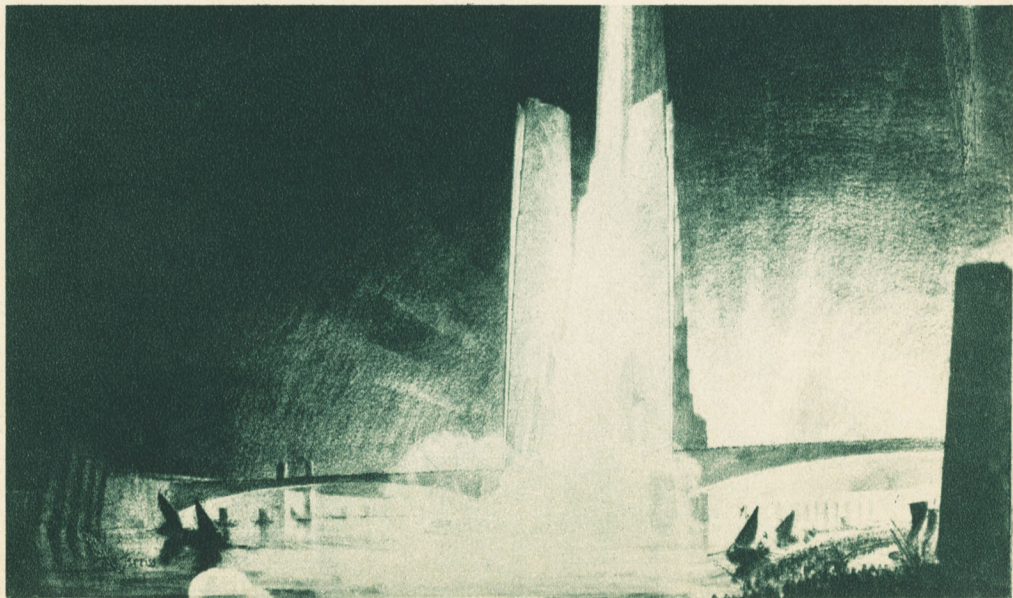

The Administration Building—with Its Beautiful Modern Architecture Is Already Completed.

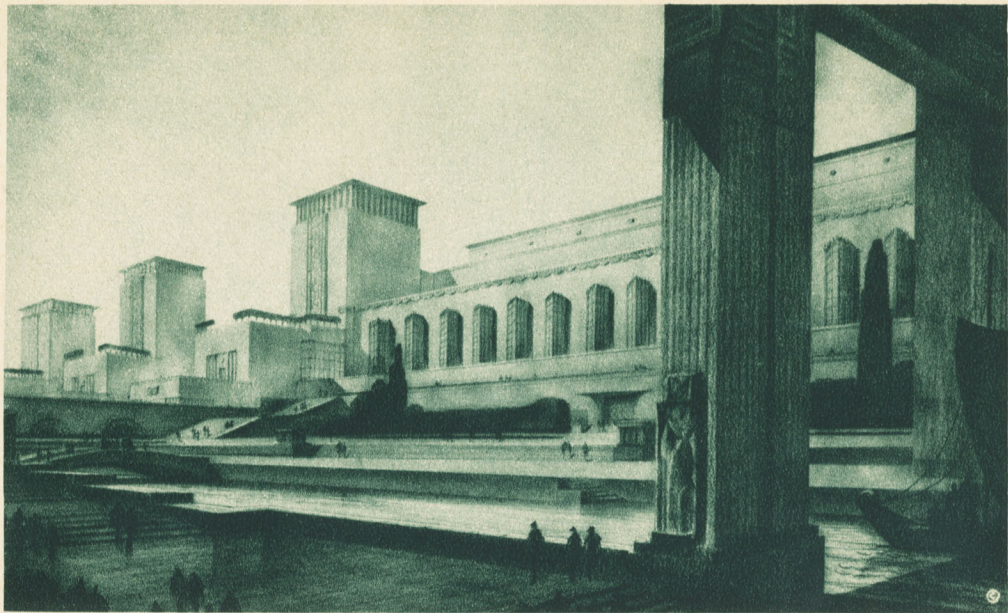

The Hall of States Building—with the Federal Building in Center Surrounded by the States Exhibits

Night View of Group of Exhibition Buildings Showing Terraces and Multi-Levels for Traffic.

The Tower of Water and Light—to Be Located in the Central Lagoon Will Be 650 Feet Tall.

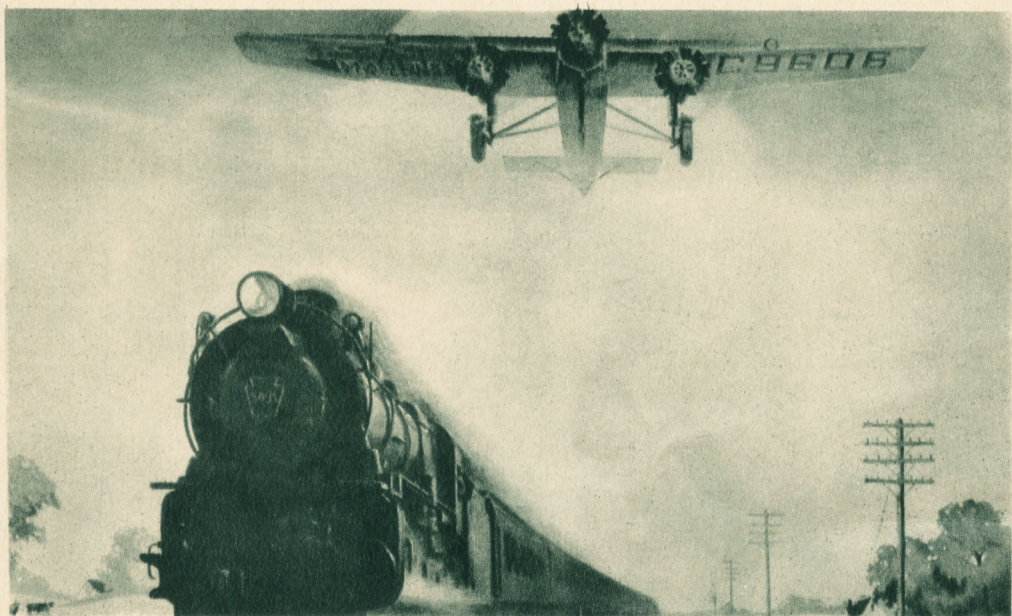

One of the Main Group of Exhibition Buildings.

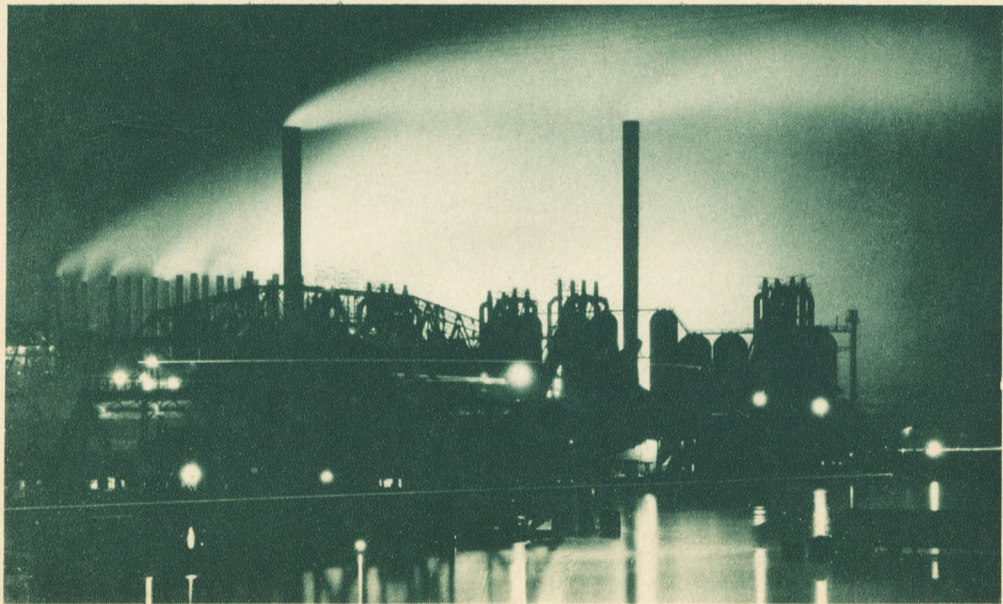

Replica of Fort Dearborn—The Birthplace of Chicago. Built for the 1933 Century of Progress.

View of Downtown Chicago: 1—Stevens Hotel, 2—Field Museum, 3—Soldier Field, 4—Shedd Aquarium, 5—Administration Bldg., 6—Adler Planetarium, 7—Buckingham Fountain, 8—Art Institute.

The Broadway Limited, Leader of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Fleet of Limited Trains to Chicago.

The Steel Mills at Night—One of Chicago's Most Colorful and Awe-Inspiring Sights.

Buckingham Fountain at Night with the Stevens Hotel to the Right

Aerial View of Soldiers Field Stadium, Field Museum and Chicago's Famous Sky-line.

Chicago's Zoo Is Located in Lincoln Park.

Navy Pier—A Playground and Lake Shipping Center of Chicago.

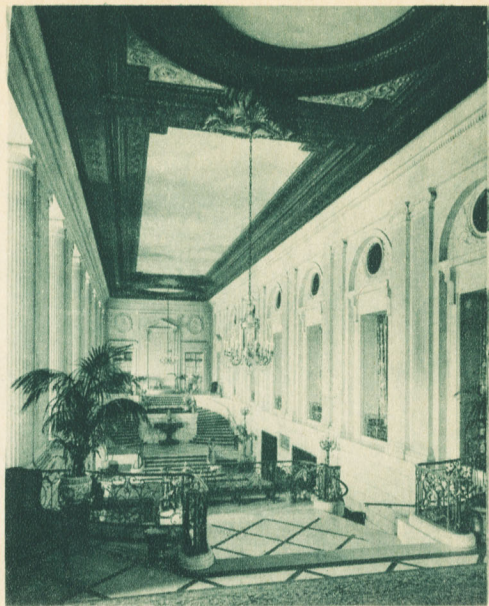

The High-Ho Golf Club—Located on the Roof of the Stevens—300 Feet Above Michigan Avenue.

The Beautiful Main Dining Room of the Stevens—The Home of—"The World's Greatest Two Dollar Dinner."

The Lounge of the Stevens.

The Grand Stair Hall

If not delivered in ten days return to

Printed in U. S. A.

Buckingham Fountain with Stevens Hotel in Background

Photo by Kaplan & Tally