CAN YOU AFFORD NOT TO SEE THE GREAT WORLD'S FAIR IN CHICAGO WHEN IT COSTS SO LITTLE?

THE WORLD'S FAIR, which will be held in Chicago, June 1 to November 1, 1933, is the one thing above all others that you ought to see this year.

The nations of the world have joined to make "A Century of Progress" a truly international exposition. It will be entertaining and instructive to the highest degrees, and there will be plenty of amusement on the Midway.

All-Expense Tours

The arrangements made by the New York Central Lines in connection with the American Express All-Expense Tours in Chicago make it possible to visit the Fair at very low cost.

The prices quoted below include these all-expense tours and cover round trip railroad fare and lower berth, hotel room, transfer to and from hotel and railroad station in Chicago, admission to the Exposition and sightseeing.

In no other way can visitors see the World's Fair and Chicago so completely and economically. Your hotel accommodations are assured and you know before you start what your trip will cost. Upon arrival in Chicago you will find in the railroad terminal station an American Express Information Booth, where you will obtain your hotel reservation and full information.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Regarding All-Expense Tours Outlined Herein as Well as Independent Tours in Chicago

Individual Tours: As these tours are unescorted, you are free to enjoy the Exposition, the sights of Chicago and the features of the tour at your own convenience.

Special Rates for Children: No charge will be made for children under 5 years of age sharing bed in hotel room with adult. Children under 5 years of age will be admitted free to the Exposition, and no charge will be made for transfers specified in the tour, nor for sightseeing unless a child occupies a separate seat in the sightseeing coach.

Half the tour price will be charged for children 5 to 12 years of age if they share hotel room with adult.

Meals are not included in the tour prices, but will be obtainable at excellent and inexpensive restaurants both on and outside the Exposition grounds.

Sightseeing in Chicago will be done in comfortable Gray Line motor coaches and will include a complete tour of the City, with experienced guide-lecturer.

Extension of Tours: If you desire to stay at your hotel in Chicago longer than specified by your tour ticket, you may do so, at additional cost, by notifying the hotel management.
